REF: Rockaway River Watershed Cabinet Appointments & 2009 Hosting

Dear Council Members,

As you may know Denville Twp. is one of the original members of the Rockaway River Watershed Cabinet. We have been a consistent contributor these past 13 years. I'd like to announce the full slate of cabinet members for the remainder of 2008 who will replace previous members whose nominations have been in effect since 2000.

Ted Hussa	administration representative
Nick Stecky	governing body representative
Fred Prager	public at-large representative

Additionally, the host municipality has rotated from town to town. Parsippany-Troy Hills hosted the meetings for many years, then Hanover took its turn and currently Boonton Township is the host. I have offered Denville Township Municipal Building to be the host for 2009. Meetings are generally held every other month starting in January and are on the third Wednesday. They run from 4:30 till 6 PM. Occasionally there are scheduling changes. The facilitator and executive board creates the agenda for each meeting. Refreshments are not required, but now and then it is a nice treat for the members. Many important decisions pertaining to water quality and flooding will be contemplated at the 2009 meetings. Meetings would be held in the community room.

I ask your approval of my 2008 nominations and also ask if you would approve by resolution Denville being the host municipality for 2009.
